

Why I Want to Go to College

By: Rylee Jo Amen

I've always had the desire to chase a path that glorifies God and reflects his purpose for my life! Going to college is a major step in achieving goals, as it will provide me with the knowledge and skills I need to fulfill my dreams.

I am personally drawn to Voice Acting and Acting in general, it's a craft that allows me to bring stories and characters to life, and I believe this art can be a powerful tool for a great future.

By pursuing a degree in this journey, I can learn the artistic ways of Voice Acting, while also using my talents to spread the message of God. Through using my voice, I can participate in projects that uplift others and inspire them to seek God in their own lives!

Personally, my passion for Voice Acting isn't all about entertaining but it's about the ability to influence others into doing what they love most and, most importantly about glorifying God! College will be a stepping stone to answering my full capability and calling and it will ensure that I am equipped to honor God with the unique talent that he has gifted to me.
